Assignement-12

1. Write a java program to create two text field and button. The user will give his name in the first text box and when the user clicks the button the name will be displayed as My name is +user name.
2. Write a java program to print smiling face in a frame.

3. Write a java program to create three color buttons (with caption "Red", "Blue" and "Green") and a text in a frame. Initially the text should be displayed in black color. When the user clicks on a particular color button the text should be changed to that particular color.
4. Write java program to design a calculator using Frame.
5. Write a java program design a registration form. When user will click the button all the information will be stored in the file or database. (The Student will do himself without taking faculty help.)